

Flash Mental Arithmetic & Math Competition

2017 World Journal Spring Education Expo Flash Mental Arithmetic & Math Competition

Co-sponsored by SF World Journal & the Chinese American Abacus Association

Date: Saturday, April 01, 2017

Time: 12:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Place: 100 S. Milpitas Blvd.

Milpitas CA 95035

Competition Categories:

- (1) Flash Mental Arithmetic, Addition and Subtraction;
- (2) Math + Flash Mental Arithmetic Skills

Challenging competitors' focus and concentration, visual reactions, and calculating capabilities in math and flash mental arithmetic skills. Competitors will test themselves through different stages of increasingly difficult problems in two different competitions.

The Chinese American Abacus Association encourages students to bravely strive to reach their goals, and hopes that all students who study mental math and abacus can involve different ways of learning abacus and strengthen their abacus skills in order to challenge themselves and bring out their unlimited potential.

During the mental math portion, an abacus is not permitted; in both parts, no calculator is allowed.

Qualifications: Students who have learnt abacus and mental math and are currently in Grades 1-12 are eligible to enter. Ways to Register: (1) Students of CAAA teachers should register through their teacher; (2) Others must apply through the website at <http://caaa-abacus.weebly.com>.

More information about registration (including the registration deadline and fees) and competition rules and regulations will be available in early March, 2017 on the CAAA website, <http://caaa-abacus.weebly.com/> or <http://caaa-abacus.org>.
