

2008 Chinese Cultural Exchange Camp (3rd – 5th Graders)

Explore, Learn, and Play!!!

Silicon Valley, NASA, and Gold Rush Towns

Want an opportunity to learn about the abacus as well as other intriguing aspects of Chinese culture? Join us and spend an unforgettable week (July 14th-18th) at the 2008 Cultural Exchange Camp. This exciting and educational five-day journey is the perfect way to gain valuable exposure to a various elements of Chinese culture that are ever so elusive nowadays. Our itinerary will include several stops such as Noble Library, NASA, the Discovery Museum and Gold Rush Town. We ensure that our camp activities will provide our participants with an interactive and stimulating experience, and hope that anyone who joins our camp will leave with a deeper understanding and passion for Chinese culture. We are expecting international participants as well. Only 60 spots are available, so sign up ASAP!!!

www.suttergold.com 209.736.2708 or 866.762.2837

Above two photos: All rights reserved. © Sierra Nevada Recreation Corporation

Reasons to join this summer camp:

- to have fun with peers and our knowledgeable staff
- to interact with international students from all over the world
- to experience Chinese culture first hand
- to demystify the abacus
- Incredibly small nominal fee of $150 which includes classes, lunches, field trips, admissions tickets, transportation, and more!

Sponsor: Chinese American Abacus Association

Co-Sponsors: National Council of associations of Chinese Language Schools
Association of Northern California
Chinese Schools

Southern California Council of Chinese Schools
Children's Discovery Museum of San Jose
Distinguished Citizens Society International Association of U.S.A.
Berryessa Chinese School

For more information: www.CAAA-abacus.org or Email: caaa.us@gmail.com